

What is Pagsaulog?

Pagsaulog, the Bisaya word for celebrate, aims to recognize the exceptional dedication and achievements of trainees and partners of HRDO. This initiative aims to acknowledge and appreciate outstanding contributions that have enhanced various facets of the university's learning and development operations. Significantly, the program underscores UP Diliman's unwavering commitment to valuing and appreciating its dedicated workforce.

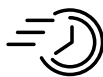

Program Format and Duration

Delivery

in person

Simultaneity

synchronous

Application

by invitation

Duration

4

hours

Target pax

200

trainees & partners

Program Features

Recognition and Appreciation

The program epitomizes the essence of recognizing and appreciating the exceptional achievements of UP Diliman's management, employees, guest speakers, and partner departments.

Strategic Alignment

The synergy of employee L&D achievements and the University's goals ensures that HRM efforts are linked to the university's broader mission and vision.

Empowerment

Through active acknowledgment and appreciation of achievements, the program empowers individuals and partner departments to continue their exemplary contributions in UP's L&D initiatives.

Testimonial

Every contribution has been acknowledged.

Dianne Ringor, Diliman Accounting Office